

HERSHEY[®] COUNTRY CLUB

Resort Guide

HERSHEY[®]
RESORTS

HERSHEY COUNTRY CLUB

Hershey® Country Club features a variety of flexible meeting spaces paired with consistent and attentive service. Offering scenic views of the distinctive East and West Courses, Hershey Country Club is a unique and memorable meeting venue.

- 10,672 sq. ft. of flexible meeting space
- 6 meeting rooms that can accommodate 10-250 people
- Largest meeting room is 4,400 sq. ft.
- On-site Audio/Visual services
- On-site catering
- Access to three distinctive golf courses

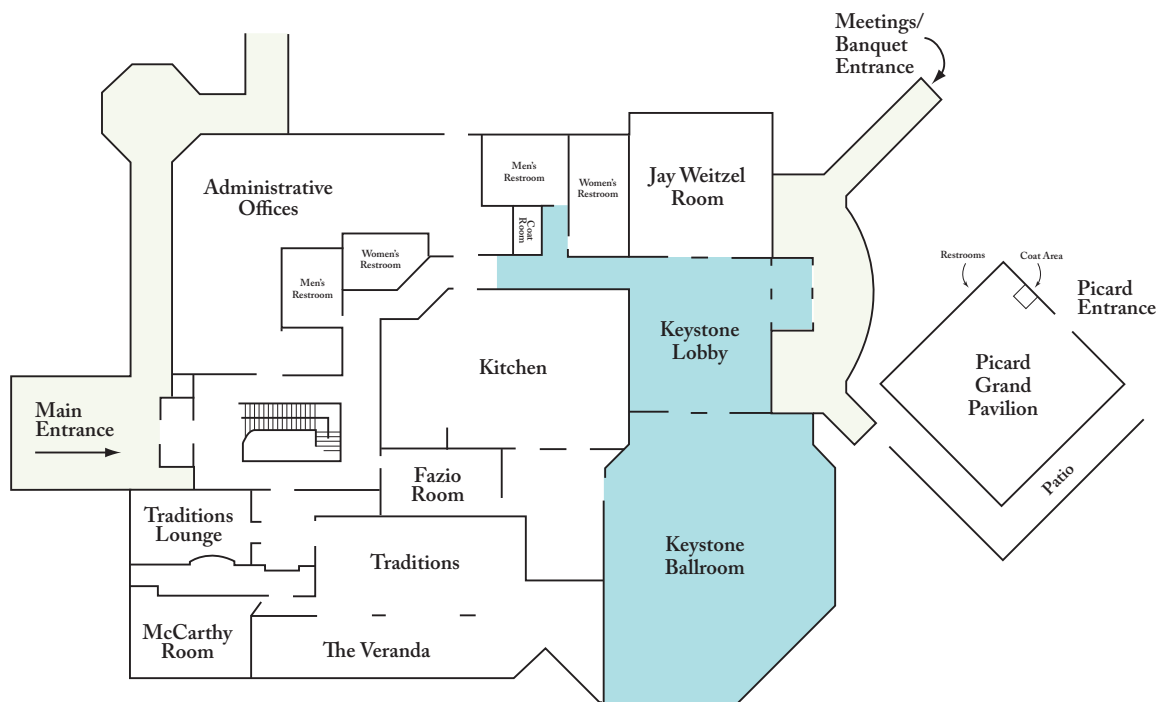

HISTORY

- In 1930, Milton S. Hershey founded Hershey Country Club, giving up the first floor in his High Point Mansion to serve as the first clubhouse.
 - Former club professionals and World Golf Hall of Fame members Ben Hogan and Henry Picard, as well as Byron Nelson, Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, and Sam Snead, have all graced Hershey's fairways.
 - The 1970 Clubhouse was replaced by the current structure, designed in the Stanford White-style of the 1930's, which opened in 2006.
-

KEYSTONE BALLROOM

The Keystone Ballroom was named after the Lady Keystone Open Hershey Country Club hosted from 1977 – 1994. The ballroom is the largest meeting space at Hershey Country Club, which features large windows overlooking the East and West courses.

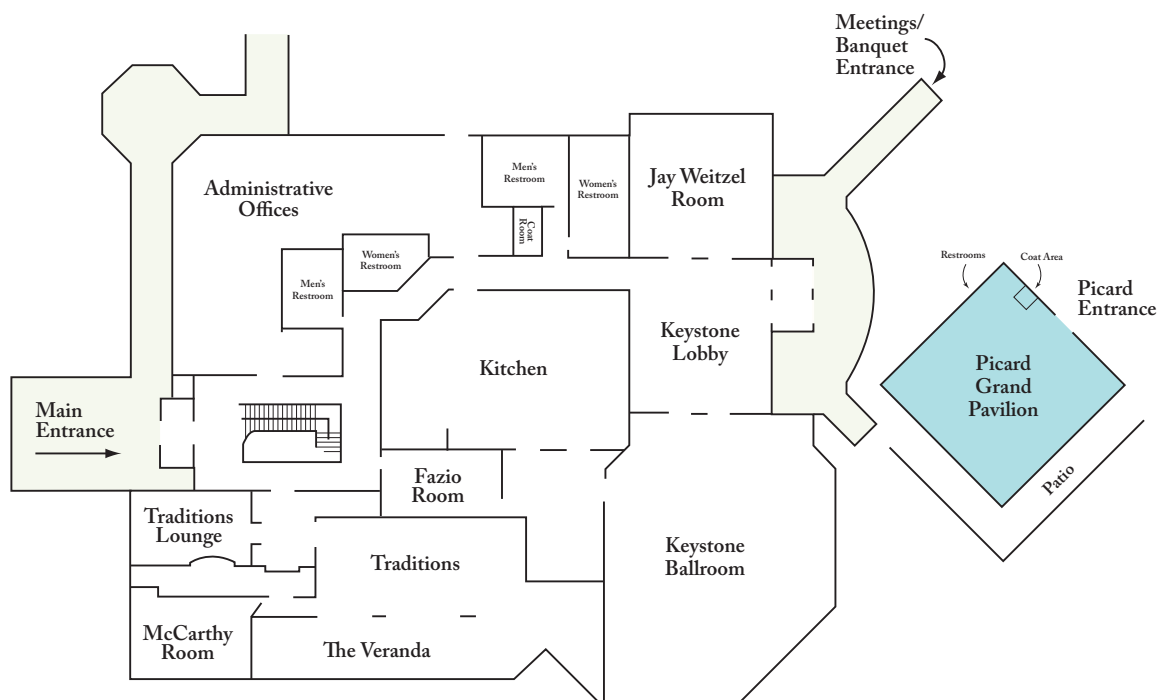

Size	Sq. ft.	Theatre	Rounds of 10	Classroom	Reception	Hollow Sq.	Conf. Style	U-shape	Exhibit 8x10
58'x73'x13'	4,400	300	250	150	400	60	52	45	35

PICARD GRAND PAVILION

The Picard Grand Pavilion was named after Henry Picard, a former golf professional from 1934–1940. He later went on to play in the PGA for many years.

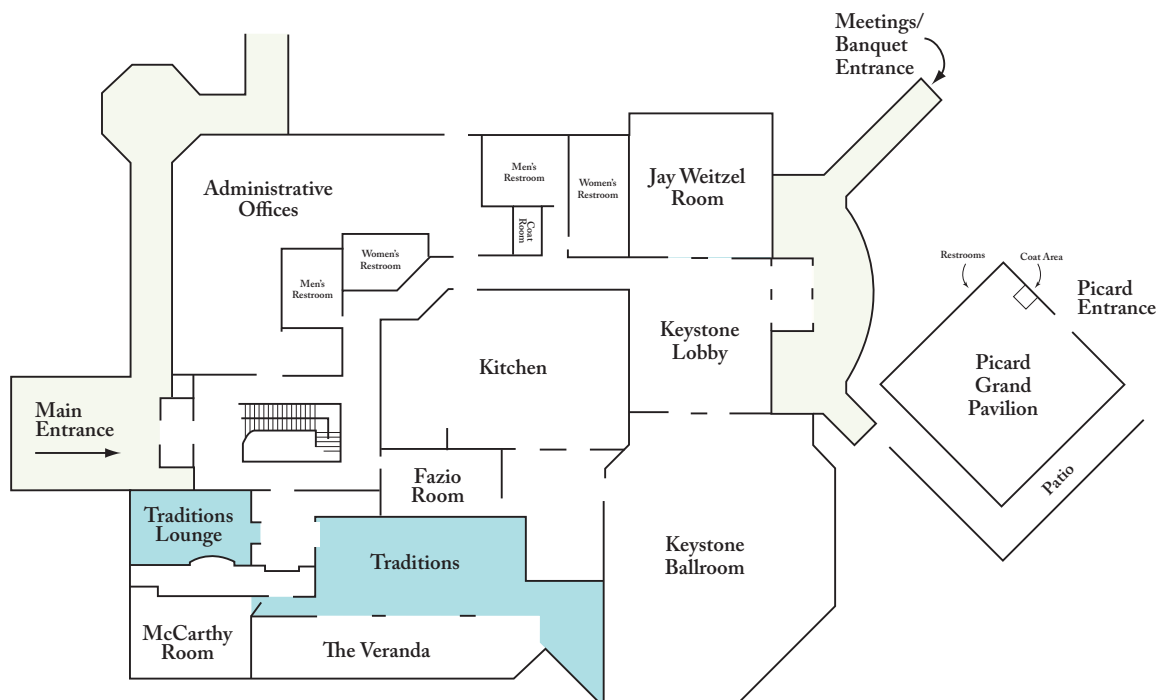

Size	Sq. ft.	Theatre	Rounds of 10	Classroom	Reception	Hollow Sq.	Conf. Style	U-shape	Exhibit 8x10
60'x60'x25'*	3,600	250	170	120	350	48	52	36	40

* Picard pavilion has vaulted ceilings, a stone fireplace, and doors that open to the outside making it an all-weather pavilion.

TRADITIONS

Hershey Country Club has been rich in Tradition since 1930. The unique Traditions room features a fireplace, wooden columns, and large windows overlooking the East and West Courses.

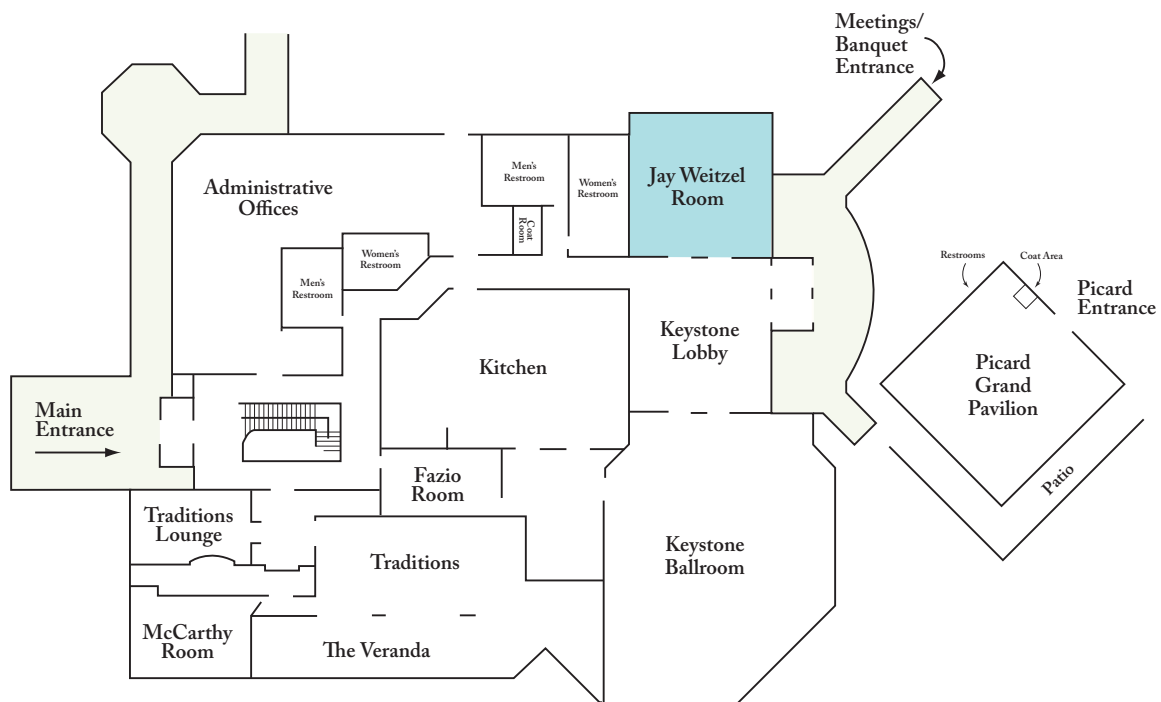

Size	Sq. ft.	Theatre	Rounds of 10	Classroom	Reception	Hollow Sq.	Conf. Style	U-shape	Exhibit 8x10
38'x50'x14'	1,800	75	110	56	130	40	40	30	25

JAY WEITZEL ROOM

*The Jay Weitzel Room was named after the head professional who oversaw expansion projects from 1957-1994.
The Jay Weitzel Room offers versatile meeting space with plenty of natural light.*

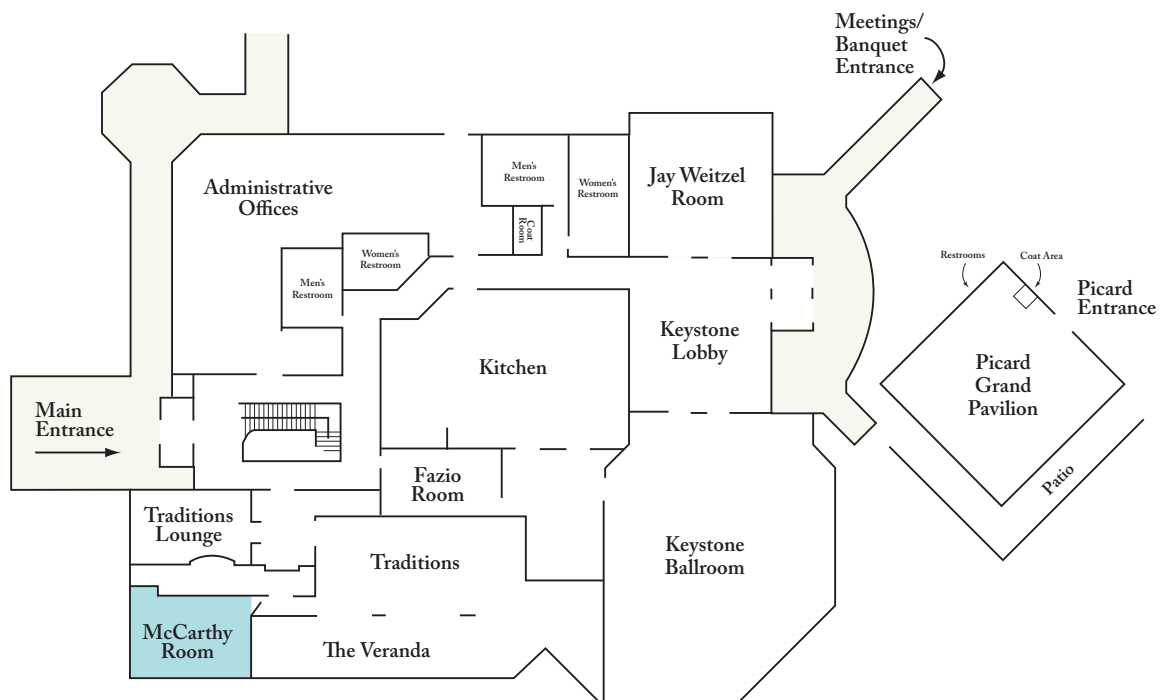

Size	Sq. ft.	Theatre	Rounds of 10	Classroom	Reception	Hollow Sq.	Conf. Style	U-shape	Exhibit 8x10
35'x38'x13'	1,482	80	80	50	100	40	40	30	21

McCARTHY ROOM

The McCarthy Room, featuring large windows overlooking the courses, was named after Maurice McCarthy. He designed the West Course and Spring Creek Golf Course.

Size	Sq. ft.	Theatre	Rounds of 10	Classroom	Reception	Hollow Sq.	Conf. Style	U-shape	Exhibit 8x10
28'x22'x13'	620	40	30	24	30	24	24	22	8

HERSHEY COUNTRY CLUB COURSES

The Hershey Country Club includes three distinctive golf courses, each a unique playing experience rich in history.

- The East Course at Hershey Country Club was designed by George Fazio and built in 1969; it features elevated greens, sparkling lakes, and more than 100 bunkers.
 - Designed by Maurice McCarthy in 1930, the West Course at Hershey Country Club features spectacular scenery with High Point Mansion, Milton S. Hershey's former home, as a backdrop.
 - Spring Creek Golf Course was originally designed by Maurice McCarthy in 1932, and it is the area's longest nine-hole course.
-

OUTINGS/TOURNAMENTS

- First-class amenities and a dedicated staff provide for successful golf outings and tournaments.
- Hershey Country Club offers unmatched logistical support for tournaments and value-added opportunities.